Digital Manga Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 200 pages. Akira was living happily with his mother and younger brother. Though his father was the chairman of the powerful Kasuga Corporation, his mother was only his mistress. When Akiras mother dies after a long and painful battle with cancer, Akiras father refuses to show up at the funeral. Instead he sends Hyougami, his right hand man. Akira and his brother are dragged off to live at the Kasuga estate. Every time Akira attempts to break free of his tyrannical father and the inescapable advances of Hyougami, his plans are thwarted by the power and money of the Kasuga family. His job offer at a competing company is rescinded and his brothers hospital is conveniently bought and turned into a nursing home. Akira soon realizes that his well-being is controlled by the whims of Hyougami. Hyougami is used to getting what he wants and Akira is number one on the list. Is Akira willing to sell his body for security Does he even have a choice And can he distance his emotions from his growing physical attraction or is he falling for the cold, ruthless and mysterious Hyougami This item ships from multiple locations.
