Read Janus LLC. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 412 pages. Dimensions: 9.1in. x 6.1in. x 0.9in. From the back cover: Expert advice for entrepreneurs and private company investors. Grow your business with this expanded and updated 5th edition of a resource that has been hailed by company executives, investors, business school professors and others in the know as a masterpiece, the best corporate finance guide on the market and an incredibly comprehensive resource. Own the resource that entrepreneurs and private company investors praise for its accessible, in-depth counsel on key business issues companies face when they seek funding, finance growth and deal with the challenges of expansion. Learn to attract capital, negotiate terms, evaluate funding proposals and structure financings. Discover techniques to retain key employees and protect company secrets. Get help structuring public offerings, private placements and joint ventures. Hear from a veteran legal practitioner who knows his stuff without paying the hourly rate. Tap into the experience of someone who has advised entrepreneurs and venture capital firms, sat on venture-backed boards and made angel investments. The rest is up to you. Just like it was for the authors grandfather, pictured on the cover with his management team in 1923 as they opened the worlds largest coal mine. Pulled out of school in the third grade to work in the mines, he used grit, determination and street smarts to succeed. Get some street smarts here as you venture out to create something great! More about the book: Richardsons Guide answers the questions most frequently asked by owners and operators as they search for funding, negotiate financing terms, and address other critical issues. It helps venture investors and company executives understand how deals are structured and the ramifications of the compromises made in funding negotiations. The Guide starts with an introduction to...
