PHILIDIOMS AND OTHER THOUGHTS TO LIVE AND LAUGH BY

Rudy Behrens, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book is a collection of original philosophical statements, idioms and other forms of humor and rhetoric compiled over many years. Philidioms (new word) is a contraction of philosophical statements idioms. These thoughts have been categorized into twelve subject areas (Parts; see the Table of Contents). The last four: Government and Politics , On the Job (The Private Sector) , Education and The Benediction (Religion) contain much satire. The style of writing with satire is similar to a modern Mark Twain (1835-1910), except less folksy and more succinct. It is interesting that Mark Twain found fodder for satire of education in his day. Today, with the proof of mediocre education in the United States, critics are having a field day. Those readers with children in public schools should find this part of major interest. No criticism should be inferred for those good, dedicated teachers scattered throughout the country. Some of the Part on Religion assumes the philosophy of an atheist. This section is not meant to convert anyone to atheism, rather to show what an atheist may think but would not dare say. Government satire is and has been an acceptable form of entertainment since our government was formed in 1789. This Part intends to further the tradition. The best way to make it better is to get involved to vote the can-kickers out of office. Finally, let us not forget the private sector depicted in the Part entitled On the Job (The Private Sector) . Sometimes ruthless, sometimes fair, management creates jobs and depending on how well they manage, can also destroy them. Some Parts, for example, Down At the Senior Center are best enjoyed by...
