The debate was opened by Mr. Harlan, who presented the memorial of Colonel Lane, and proceeded to pass a high eulogium upon him for his services as a politician and a soldier. After detailing Colonel Lane s services, Mr. Harlan proceeded: But, Mr. President, I desire to remind the democracy of the country, so ably represented on this floor, who had conferred on him so many distinguished honors, that when he came to his own his own knew him not. They seemed to have entirely forgotten his distinguished services in days of yore. It was not remembered with sufficient vividness to be a voucher for his personal honesty. The honorable senator from Louisiana (Mr. Benjamin) said of the paper which he presented to the Senate of the...
