Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Three Dedications: Soldier s Monument at South Sutton, Pillsbury Free Library at Warner, Margaret Pillsbury General Hospital at Concord, 1891 Three unparalleled events occurred in New Hampshire within a month, in the autumn of 1891. These were the dedication of the Monument to commemorate the patriotism of the loyal men of Sutton who fell in the War of the Rebellion, of a Free Public Library for the intellectual culture and literary entertainment of the people of Warner and all sojourners therein, and of a General Hospital for the care of sick and disabled persons in the city of Concord. All these were the outgrowth of the well matured plans and munificence of a native of the first named town, and a resident in the prime of life of the last named town and city. It is most desirable that the exercises upon those occasions should be put in a more enduring form than in the columns of a newspaper or the pages of a pamphlet. With this end in view, this volume has been prepared and published, to be placed where it can be conveniently referred to for all coming time.
