Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The State College of Washington Library Bulletin, Vol. 6: August, 1918 This bibliography is the sixth of a series of library bulletins published by the library of the State College of Washington during the past two years. It is offered as a further contribution to the nation-wide movement for conservation of all national resources. Our food bibliography, issued last March, has been received so favorably throughout the country that we hope this also will be of service. The appointment of Mr. John W. Scott, Chief of the Textile Division, by the War Industries Board, brings this phase of conservation very prominently to public attention, and we believe many will be interested in having a carefully prepared bibliography on this subject. The list has been prepared by the College Library and the College of Home Economics in cooperation. We are indebted to Miss Agnes H. Craig, Head of the College of Home Economics, and Director of Home Economics for the State of Washington, U.S Food Administration, for the valuable introduction which should be carefully read by...

Reviews

This book is definitely not straightforward to get started on studying but extremely exciting to read. It is really simplistic but shocks in the 50 percent of the ebook. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

This publication is amazing. It is definitely basic but shocks in the fifty percent of your publication. You wont feel monotony at anytime of your own time (that's what catalogues are for concerning if you question me).
