Excerpt: . . . a memorial panel on the auditorium wall of the West High School. The work is in the nature of a mural decoration done in oil on a canvas 10 by feet, and has for its main motif the following quotation from Daniel Webster: If we work upon marble it will perish; if we work upon brass time will efface it; if we rear temples they will crumble into dust; but if we work upon immortal minds, if we imbue them with principles with the just fear of God and love of their fellowmen, we engrave on those tablets something which will brighten to all eternity. The gift was unveiled with appropriate ceremonies on May 17, 1912. Minneapolis Chapter, of Minneapolis, has presented an appropriate settee to be placed in Loring Park near the tree and boulder given by the chapter some years before. The...
