Big Toe Writes, LLC, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A Refreshing Tale of Personal Discovery Lonely, divorced and working a passionless job Matthew Braddock feels trapped in a meaningless life. With no foreseeable relief to a flabby, middle-class existence, he coasts through a daily routine, battling the gray monkey riding his back. Then, chance meeting with Mason Twain, a scholar of life, offers hope. Led by Mason and his cadre of world-changers, Matthew suffers through the pain of naivete, ignorance and indifference to discover his core desire: To be Healthy, Wealthy, Wise and Loved. Alisa, the self-made fitness entrepreneur: People think about problems most of the time. Men think about women problems, women think about men problems, poor people think about money problems, rich people think about taxes and about the heavy burden poor people put on them. Everyone thinks about work, whether it s too much or too little. So what do people become? They become the problems they think about. They attract other people who want to talk about those problems, and they repel people who are thinking up solutions to those problems. Jody, the multi-millionaire wealth guru: Money ain t Wealth. Money is seed. Money, combined with ideas, is the plant. Money, with ideas, and a constant gardener, become fruit. Fruit that you can eat forever is wealth. Mason, the teacher genesis, the people-mover: Matthew, the meaning of life is. To search for meaning. There is no happily-ever-after. And, if there was and you got there, you would be bored and wonder what it all means. Herman, the professor and ultra hip brew master: I ve decided to be the best father, the best dad, on the planet. In order to...
